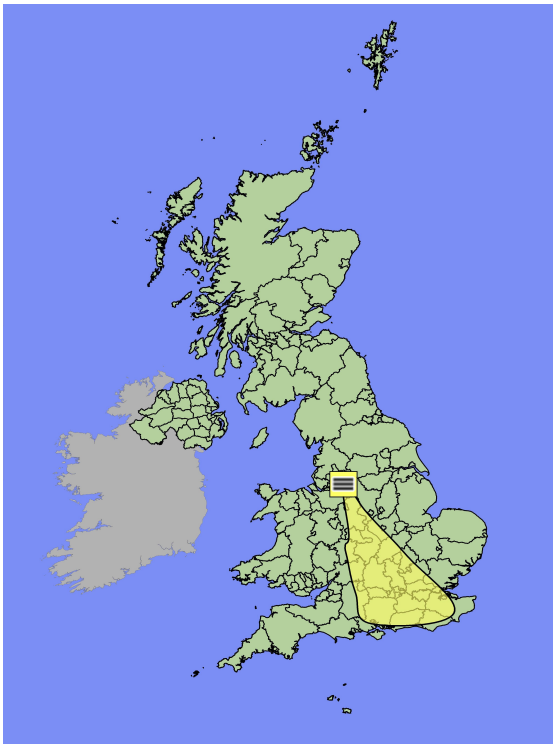
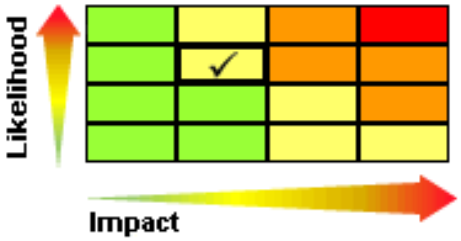
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Some areas of dense fog are affecting routes from the Manchester area across central England in towards the London area and southeast England. However, as winds begin to pick up, the fog should steadily lift and disperse this morning.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 04:45 on Mon, 13th Feb 2012 until 09:00 on Mon, 13th Feb 2012

Widespread fog will continue to affect much of central and southeast England including the outskirts of London into this morning's rush-hour. The public should be aware that with visibilities of than less 100m in places, driving conditions will be difficult. However, conditions should steadily improve from the northwest this morning
